His Excellency

The Hon. Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, G. C. M. G.,

Pointe-a-Pic Que.

My dear Sir Charles:

Many thanks for your letter. If you can possibly get Judge Grey for us I am sure we should be delighted. Over a year ago, I think it was after consultation with you, I wrote him, but he then declined. Possibly now conditions have arisen and he might be willing to accept. May I ask you to use your influence with him?

The meeting of the American Bar Association must have been most interesting. I hope that you are enjoying your holiday at Pointe-a-Pic.

Yours sincerely,

President

Dear Mr President
I cannot induce Judge Grey to come to Toronto
for the lectures. He is not very strong
his time is very much taken up.

I spoke to Judge Henry Albany who was formerly a judge
in the Philippines.
He says in his reply
in the note that it may be useful -
Very truly (to the President)

October 13th, 1913

His Excellency, Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, Supreme Court Chambers, Ottawa.

My dear Sir Charles:

Many thanks for your kindness in making inquiries for me with regard to Mr. Justice Holmes. I hope that we may have favourable issue, though you do not think that there is much chance for it.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

ALBANY, N.Y.

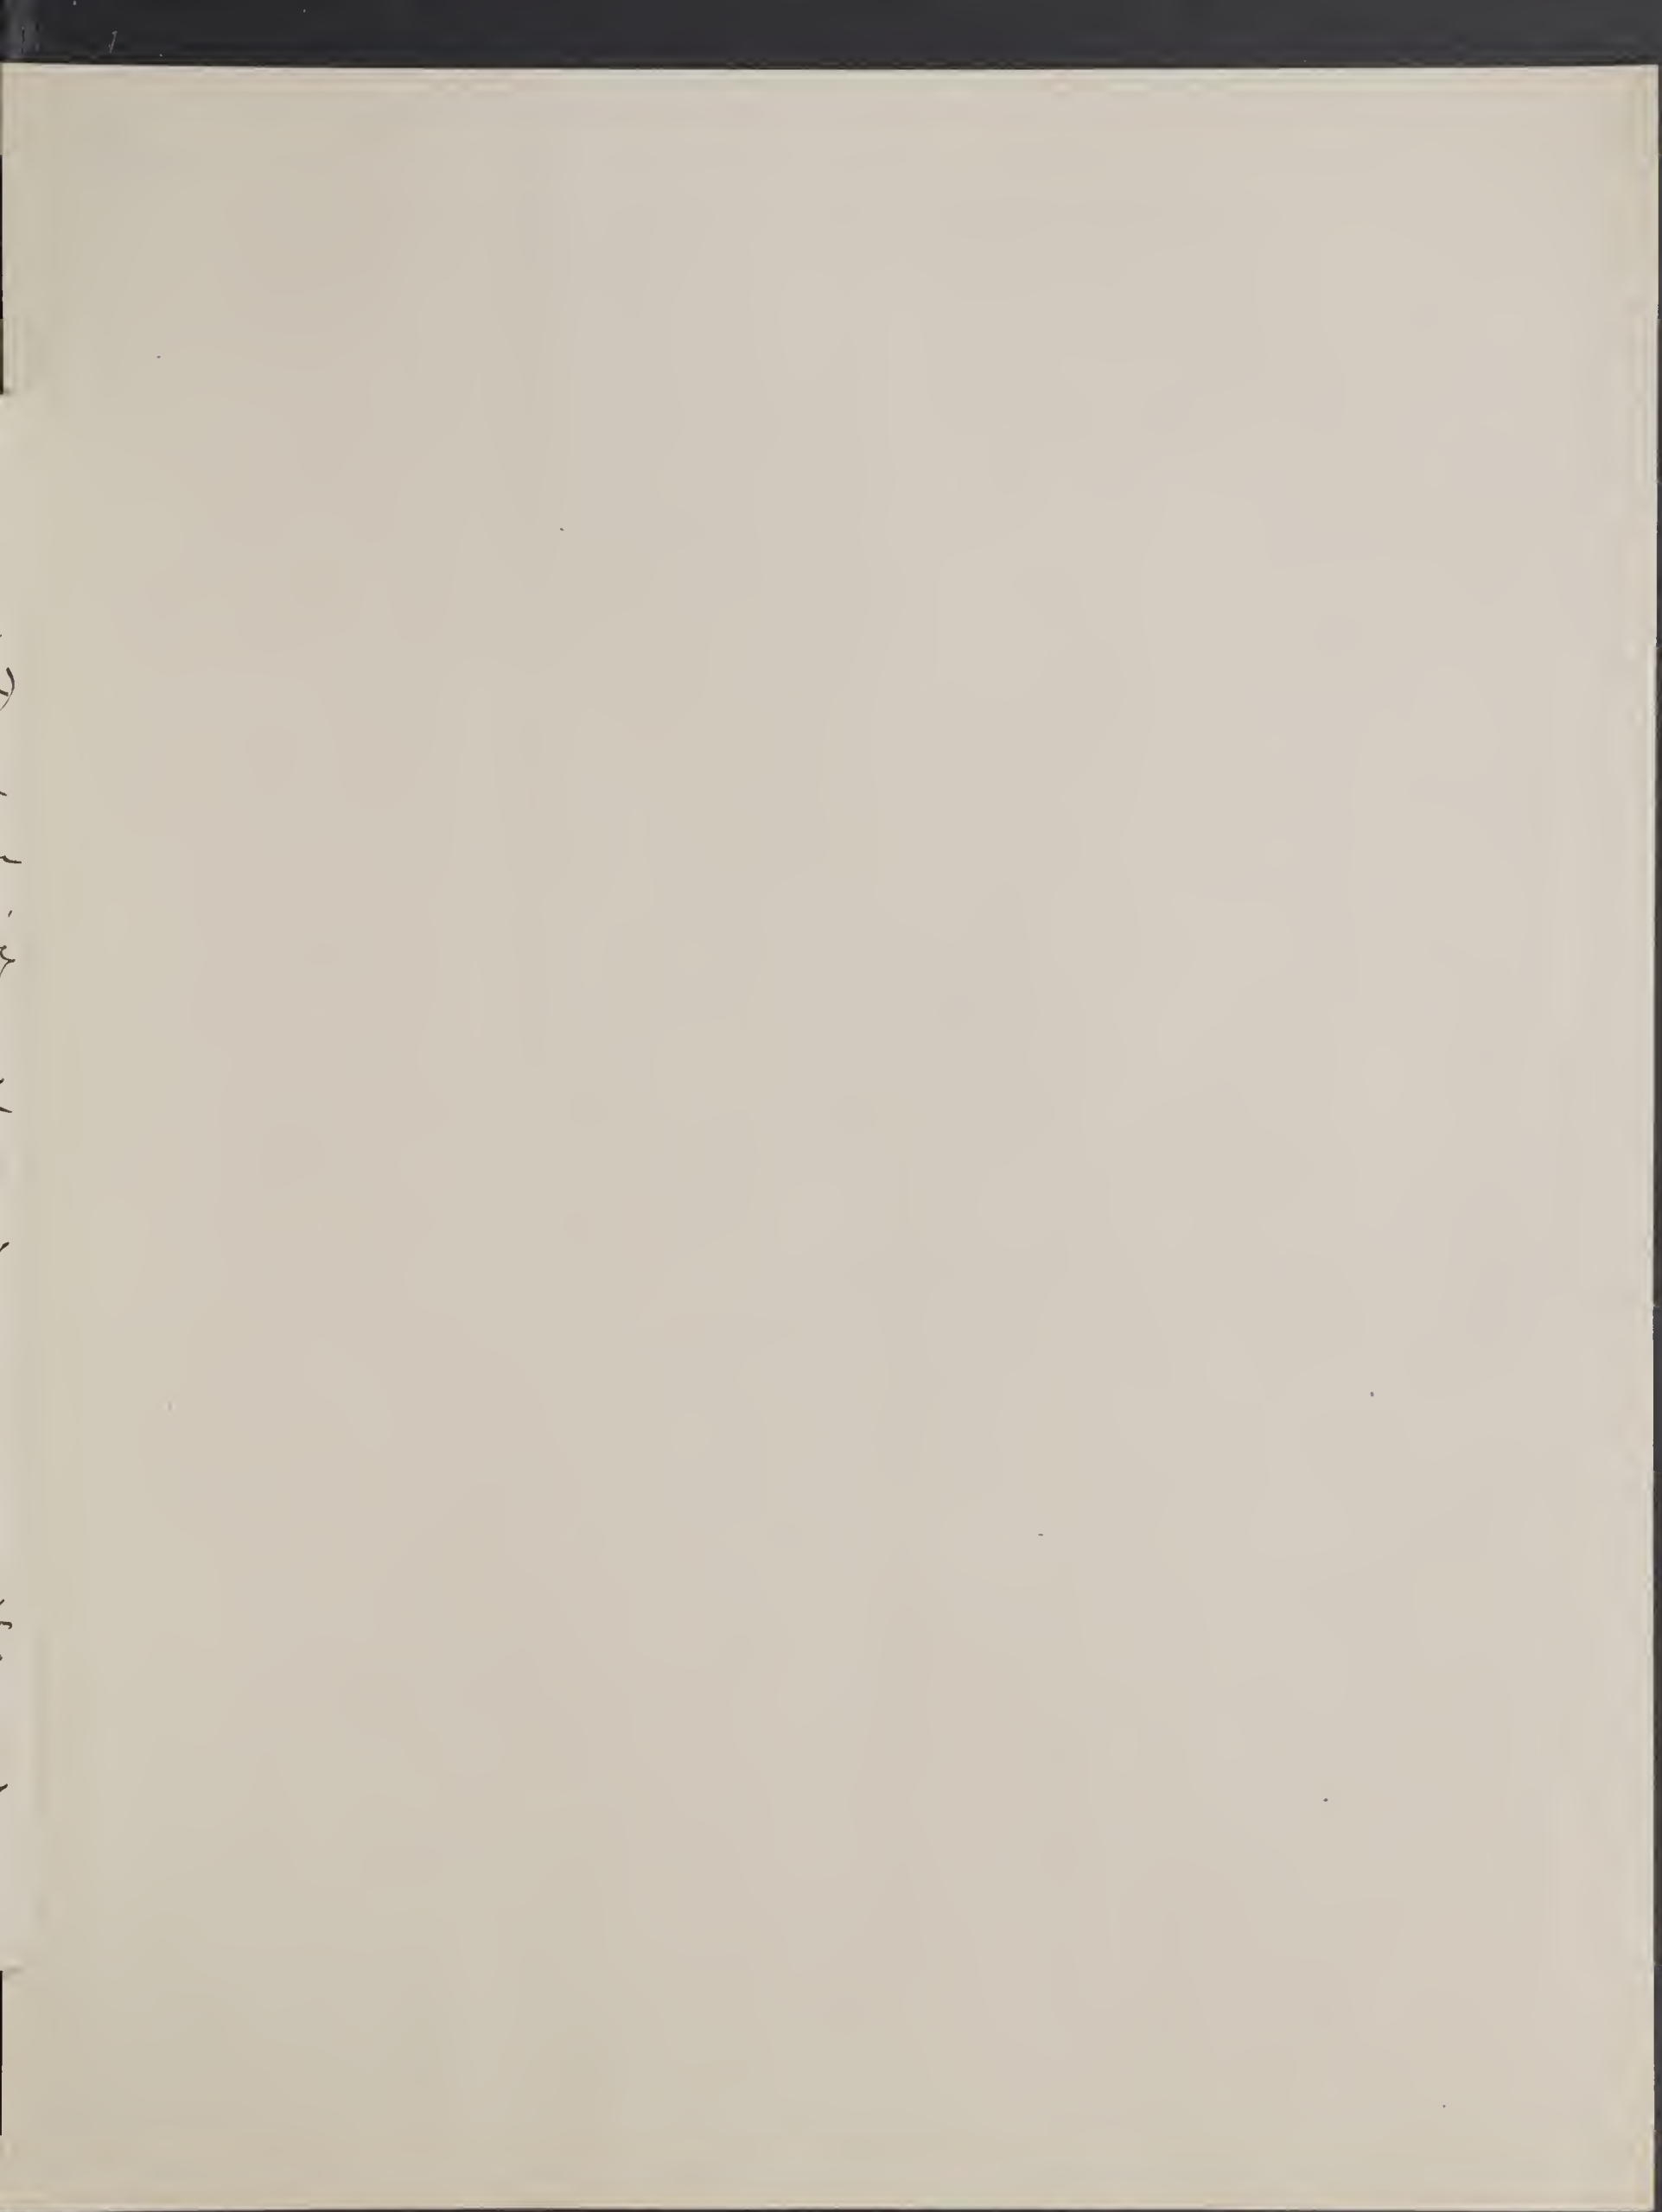

My dear Sir Charles:

After conferring with Hadhams of the Bar Association I suggest
for the Toronto occasion Irving G. Kinn, of Syracuse, N.Y., who last Jan. returned from the N.Y. Court of Appeals after long & distinguished service.
He is a sound and affable man and a good father - somewhat
of a legal scholar.

Then there is John
H. Wigmore of Chicago
(No 340, 29 South La Salle
St. should reach him)

He wrote the book on Evidence & is Chairman of the Committee setting out the Continental Legal History series.
— too much of a
civilian, perhaps for the Toronto atmosphere.

Either of these men might accept.
The others — that occur to me as desirable are already am busy.

In anything further
in this matter, or in anything else, to say
convinced me - This
a pleasure to fancy
myself addressing you.

With kindest regards

Sincerely yours
James A. Tracy.
